JUDGMENT AND PROB/
COMM ORDER

The Court asked whether there was any reason why judgment should not be pronounced. Because no sufficient cause to the contrary was shown, or appeared to the Court, the Court adjudged the defendant guilty as charged and convicted and ordered that::

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $300, which is due immediately. Any unpaid balance shall be due during the period of imprisonment, at the rate of not less than $25 per quarter, and pursuant to the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program.

Pursuant to Guideline §5E1.2(a), all fines are waived as the Court finds that the defendant has established that he is unable to pay and is not likely to become able to pay any fine.

The Court has entered a money judgment of forfeiture against the defendant, which is hereby incorporated by reference into this judgment and is final.

Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that the defendant, Eric Rodriguez, is hereby committed on Counts One, Two, and Six of the Information to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons for a term of 110 months. This term consists of 110 months on each of Counts One, Two, and Six of the Information, all to be served concurrently.

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be placed on supervised release for a term of four years. This term consists of four years on each of Counts One and Two, and three years on Count Six of the Information, all such terms to run concurrently under the following terms and conditions:

USA vs. Eric RodriguezDocket No.: LACR 19-00018-VAP-3

1. The defendant shall comply with the rules and regulations of the United States Probation & Pretrial Services Office and General Order 20-04, excluding Condition 14 in Section I of that Order.
2. During the period of community supervision, the defendant shall pay the special assessment in accordance with this judgment's orders pertaining to such payment.
3. The defendant shall cooperate in the collection of a DNA sample from the defendant.
4. The defendant shall refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. The defendant shall submit to one drug test within 15 days of release from custody and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter, not to exceed eight tests per month, as directed by the Probation Officer.
5. The defendant shall submit his or her person, property, house, residence, vehicle, papers, computers (as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 1030(e)(1)), cell phones, other electronic communications or data storage devices or media, email accounts, social media accounts, cloud storage accounts, or other areas under the defendant's control, to a search conducted by a United States Probation Officer or law enforcement officer. Failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation. The defendant shall warn any other occupants that the premises may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition. Any search pursuant to this condition will be conducted at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner upon reasonable suspicion that the defendant has violated a condition of his supervision and that the areas to be searched contain evidence of this violation.

The Court recommends that the defendant be placed in a facility in Southern California, where he can participate in the BOP's Residential Drug Abuse Program.

The Court further recommends that the defendant be considered for participation in the Bureau of Prison's 500-hour Residential Drug Abuse Program (RDAP).

In the interests of justice and upon government's motion, the remaining counts are ordered dismissed.

Defendant is informed of his right to appeal.

In addition to the special conditions of supervision imposed above, it is hereby ordered that the Standard Conditions of Probation and Supervised Release within this judgment be imposed. The Court may change the conditions of supervision, reduce or extend the period of supervision, and at any time during the supervision period or within the maximum period permitted by law, may issue a warrant and revoke supervision for a violation occurring during the supervision period.
